

ROBERT GRAHAM WEBB

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Robert Graham Webb, fifth child of Bernard and Clara Rothe Webb, was born July 21, 1909, in Lehi, Utah.

He was educated in the Lehi Schools graduating in 1927. Soon after he was called to the German Austrian Mission, leaving in 1929 and released in 1932, having fulfilled an honorable mission. He spent three months traveling in Europe and visited the place of his mother's birth, before returning home.

He married Phyllis Anderson, March 20, 1933, in the Salt Lake Temple. To this union one child, Phyllis JaLaine, was born.

He started working in the church upon his return from his mission, serving as Second Counselor in the Mutual Improvement Association one year, First Counselor one year, and President three years.

He worked in the Boy Scouts as Scoutmaster five years, district vice chairman three years and at present time is district chairman. While working in the scouts he was instrumental in starting the Fathers and Sons Banquet and has been chairman three out of the four years.

He was one of the seven Presidents of the 68th Quorum of Seventy for four years.

At present he is in the High Council, executive chairman of Aaronic Priesthood, Boy Scout district chairman and President of Lehi Riding Club.

During World War II, he worked as a fireman at Camp Williams, and farmed.

At present he is farming and feeding cattle for a living.